25X1 11. [] After listening to the open Senate debate on the Cooper resolution from the Senate gallery I met with William Woodruff, of the Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and obtained from him the briefing material which we had made available to Woodruff for Senator Russell earlier in the day. I got the impression from Woodruff and Hartung, of the Subcommittee staff, that the secret session on the Cooper amendment [] was not as sensitive from a security standpoint as might have been expected. I also gathered that during the course of the secret session some reference was made to an Agency appearance before Senator Gore's Disarmament Subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. This probably accounts for the request of the Committee staff for the transcript of that briefing.
